

LIFE PROTECTION SEMINAR

DATE : 20 August 2009

VENUE : InterContinental Hotel

The Singapore Actuarial Society and Life Insurance Association of Singapore present the industry's inaugural Life Protection Seminar. This seminar genuinely focuses on a number of insurance protection topics, ranging from risk products, distribution, financial planning to the worrying protection gap among Singaporeans.

We are pleased to inform you that Mr. Low Kwok Mun, Executive Director of MAS Insurance Supervision will be our Guest of Honour and address the delegates during the luncheon.

This Seminar is well-represented by distinguished speakers from the insurance industry, including:

- Lawrence Tsui, Swiss Re
- Gavin Maistry, Munich Re
- Andre Hermans, Aviva
- Dr David Yee
- Paul Turner, Swiss Re
- Graham Handy, E&Y

Don't miss the golden opportunity to get firsthand updates from the speakers and the exclusive 2nd release of Underinsurance Study among Singaporeans! Did you know the estimated amount of underinsurance stands at $323,223 per person?

This Seminar also lets you get up close and personal to a live panel discussion involving many CEOs from the industry. You will get the chance to hear their views on the current economic climate and role of protection products moving forward.

Join us for the full day event! If you wish to be a proud participant of the first Life Protection Seminar in Singapore and if you hate to miss the opportunity to learn more about insurance protection products from the experts, we sincerely welcome you with big hugs!

Mark in your calendar and if you miss the Early-Bird Registration with attractive offer by 31st July 2009, please mark your calendar again and again, make sure you don't miss the final registration date of 14th August 2009.
